An Arkansas girl refused to marry her lover unless he performed some heroic deed. He eloped with her mother.

According to architectural statistics, twenty-seven thousand houses were built in Paris during the reign of Napoleon III.

Since 1866 9,000 divorces have been granted in Italy, Milan being set down for no less than 3,000. Since 1870 Rome has had 600.

The newspapers of Los Angeles, Cal., are tickled over the fact that a Boston merchant bought 10,000 white blankets there and shipped them to Boston.

The great salt mines of Cracow in Poland employ 500 to 600 men at a time, and are, in fact, underground cities with streets, roads and a large population of human beings and horses.

After thirty years' absence, Robert Thorn of Haverhill, Mass., came home the other day, and his first business was to kick over a tombstone that had been erected to his memory many years before.

A drama written some years ago by King Oscar of Sweden upon an episode that occured in one of the wars waged between his country and Denmark is being prepared by his permission for presentation on the stage in Germany.

Strict orders have been given by the Russian Minister of Finance prohibiting the entry into the empire of nitro-glycerine, which is declared a Government monopoly. This cornering of the market will only sharpen the wits of the Nihilists.

There is still running from the Piazza di Venezia to the entrance of the Vatican, in Rome, a line of omnibuses which has been running for fifty years; they are rickety and dingy, and are drawn by shabby horses. The city has only two street tramways.

The laws of Kansas are very favorable to the farmer and stock-raiser in respect of exempt on from execution and sale. He is secure in the possession of 16 acres of land, with all improvements of whatever character, his implements and machinery, two horses, two cows, ten pigs and the year's crop.

Algiers possesses a river of veritable ink. Two streams, one starting from a region where the soil is ferruginous, the other from a peat swamp, meet and form the river, whose inky constituency is due to the mixing of the iron and gallic acid which the two tributary streams respectively contain.

One of the last spasms of Presbyterian opposition to organ music in church worship is felt rather feebly in Canada. A meeting of the Church Defense Association at Toronto was attended by only fifteen persons, not one of whom was a clergyman, and the chairman admitted that membership could not be obtained.

Jules Oppert is a Jew and a native of Germany. He was disqualified in that intellectual country by his descent and religion from pursuing a professional career, and went to France. He has now been elected to a place among the "immortal forty" of the French Academy for his researches and writings in the domain of philology.

The fine residence of the Dell family is on a corner in Nashville, Tenn. The senior Dell is a highly respected Methodist and advocate of total abstinence. He was disturbed a few evenings ago by unusual noises in the basement, and, going down to investigate, he found that his son had opened a barroom, with all the usual furniture and stock inside and outside. The young man's business was crushed.

Miss Leachman, of New Albany, Ind., felt insulted because Oscar Rosenbaum said she was no lady, and decided to refute his charge by cowhiding him. She armed herself with a heavy whip, managed to encounter her victim in a public place, and laid the lash across his face savagely. He hesitated to strike a woman, and her exploit would have been an entire victory had it not been for her brother, who had been hiding close by to protect her in case of need. He inadvertently exposed himself, and was thrashed by Rosenbaum so thoroughly that he had to be carried to a hospital.

According to the latest ecclesiastical arithmetic the Baptists are more numerous in the United States than any other of the denominations commonly classed as evangelical. The five reporting the largest number of communicants are as follows: Baptists, 2,374,339; Methodists, 1,742,922; Presbyterians, 915,730; Lutherans, 700,618; Episcopalians, 245,841. During the last year the Baptists increased 163,624; the Methodists, 52,620; the Episcopalians, 20,846; the Presbyterians, 16,488; the Lutherans, 10,225. It is thus seen that the Baptist gain was nearly double that of the other four denominations combined.

The Khedive of Egypt himself cannot certainly be charged with extravagance. The surrender of his private estates to the Egyptian bondholders, three years ago, left him a poor man, and the budget still keeps him poor by the amount assigned as his civil list. One hundred thousand pounds seems a very small income for an Oriental potentate, the son of the prince who in 1860 alone spent £1,500,000 on the entertainment of the visitors who came to the opening of the Suez Canal. His Highness's relations, however, are numerous, and prove a somewhat burdensome appendage. Twenty-four different families in all (excluding the ex-Khedive), they absorb £220,000.

Have the courage to cut the most agreeable acquaintance you have when convinced he lacks principle. "A friend should bear with a friend's infirmities," but not with his vices.

A great man may be affable in his conversation, yet abominable in his actions.—Old Proverb.

GIVEN UP BY DOCTORS.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop-Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"

"Well-a-day! That is remarkable! I will go this day and get some for my poor George—I know hops are good."—Salem Post.

NOTICE.

Beware of imposters. As a large number of our customers have been called upon by so-called agents pretending to sell our teas and coffees we take this method of denying all connection with peddlers of any kind, either by wagon or on foot. The unquestionably high reputation of this house for many years for giving good value and honest dealing has induced certain parties to represent themselves as our agents and thereby deceiving the people by selling them an inferior article. SAD ACCIDENT.

MR. OSCAR CRAIGG Blown Up by a Premature Blast in the Rosendale Cement Quarry—DESTRUCTION of an EYE—Its Subsequent Removal by Surgical Operation.

Mr. Oscar Craigg was foreman in a cement quarry at Rosendale, Ulster Co., N. Y. By an explosion one day in the quarry he lost an eye—lost it totally. Under an impression that the matter was less serious the local physician told Mr. Craigg that his eye was not wholly lost, but could be saved by treatment. The experiment was tried and failed. Worse remained behind, for he was in danger of losing the other also, through sympathetic inflammation. In this strait he consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told him that the injured eye must be taken out to save the other. To this Mr. Craigg demurred, and went back home in doubt. His local physician said: "Go to New York." To New York the patient went, and one of the most eminent oculists in the country, having looked at the case, said: "You have lost one eye entirely; go back and do what you can to save the other." Briefly, Dr. Kennedy removed the ruined eye, and treated Mr. Craigg with "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" to build up his system, and the result was successful.

Dr. Kennedy's great success as a Surgeon is due to the use of "Favorite Remedy" in the after treatment.

Are you troubled with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, or derangement of the Kidneys and Bladder, then use Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy." It will not disappoint you. "Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy" for sale by all druggists.
